Fart Calendar: Advent Calendar For Kids With Santa Farts

Advent Calendar 2014 - 25 Christmas Carol For Kids

Speedy Publishing LLC Fart Calendar: Advent Calendar For Kids With Santa Farts Advent Calendar 2014 - 25 Christmas Carol For Kids He just recently found out about his own fart powers (yes he somehow turned from a normal boy into a fart boy!) that somehow must have been transmitted over to him via some weird transformation, aliens, or some extraterrestrial and/or unhuman powers. Timmie assumes that this event is somehow connected to his winning streak during the fart skateboard competition where El Ninjo, his farty

*dog, was still the one who made the skateboarding powered by Ninja Farts a reality. Timmie remembers a weird dream that he experienced during this competition and somehow his dreams became reality. Who knows maybe El Ninjo is transmitting the powers over to him which is a pretty scary thought because that would make El Ninjo a non unearthly dog! All Timmie knows is that this must have happened in China or Tokio where the universal energies of Martial Arts kept hitting him the most. Anyways, this is material is reserved for a future fart story because all Timmie Guzzmann can think about is the urge to countdown to Christmas the coolest way. It is not up to him to fully understand what has happened to him, but he knows that he can control his own destiny with farts. All he cares for right now is that some invisible powers must have heard his prayers and made his dreams and wishes become a crazy reality over Christmas time. Timmie won't give you more hints because he does not want to ruin the fun for everybody: Here is just a short snapshot of the fart doors that you'll want to open on each new December day and as you are counting down to Christmas day! Following him & count down to Christmas: * Christmas Countdown Fart 7: Not For The Faint Of Heart * Christmas Countdown Fart 9: Pumpernickel Pungent Fart Recipe * Christmas Countdown Fart 11: Ziplock Bag Fart Recipe * Christmas Countdown Fart 22: Epic Sorbitol Christmas Mints more...*

Empowerment Series: Social Work and Social Welfare

Cengage Learning Reflecting the latest practices, accreditation requirements, and developments from the field, the eighth edition of bestselling SOCIAL WORK AND SOCIAL WELFARE gives readers a broad understanding about the social work profession and the role it plays in the social welfare system. Part of the Brooks/Cole Empowerment Series, the text is completely up to date and thoroughly integrates the core competencies and recommended practice behaviors outlined in the current Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards (EPAS) set by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). With its signature systems/ecological approach to understanding social welfare, the book focuses on specific social welfare areas in which social workers play major roles in policy and practice. It adopts the philosophy that there are many reasons why social problems occur, and that students need to understand the history, values, and economic, political, and cultural factors that surround these issues and the attempts to solve or address them. Instead of presenting a specific political perspective, the authors encourage readers to think critically about issues in a new way. Each chapter opens with a vignette about a social worker in a specific setting and closes with information about the career opportunities for social workers in the area discussed. Conversaciones Teológicas del Sur Global Americano

Violencia, Desplazamiento y Fe

Wipf and Stock Publishers Una colección de ensayos que parten metodológicamente de dos realidades, una local y la otra global, pero ambas derivadas de la crisis de desplazamiento forzado vivido en el sur global americano (Colombia, Latinoamérica y la diáspora latina estadounidense). Todo esto se da en función de fuerzas promotoras de la violencia sistémica y continental: globalización, neoliberalismo, corrupción política, déficit en el compromiso misionero de la iglesia cristiana de las Américas, etc. A pesar de tales factores promotores de violencia, se vislumbra en esta colección una esperanza ("teotopía") que da brillo a la historia aun por construirse en Nuestra América. Esta esperanza es expresada por medio de nuevos esfuerzos por entender las causas y consecuencias del desplazamiento forzado en Colombia y el resto de las Américas y por frescas maneras bíblico-teológicas de responder a tales causas y consecuencias como iglesia de Jesucristo.

Truth - HAPPYN355 2014 is a calendar that will guide to make yourself be a happy person. Lie - HAPPYN355 2014 is a calendar that shows holidays and important dates of the world. Truth - HAPPYN355 2014 is a calendar that helps you make the moments count. Each moment you breath is an holiday, Every action you take makes that minute, hour, day, week or month an important date. HAPPYN355 2014 - challenges us to be happy people in all situations and circumstances and endeavours of our lives. HOW, WHY AND ALL QUESTIONS YOU MIGHT HAVE ABOUT THE BOOK& ME This book or calendar (please let me know how you will use it) came about in my own search for meaning, purpose and happiness in my life. I have read all sorts of materials and used a lot of media. I was especially awakened by a talk by David Steindl Rast a Benedictine Monk on happiness$ gratitude. Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet on Joy and Sorrow says that the two rise out of the self same well. This is true, many times we are happy and sad about either our work, relationships, beliefs, attitudes and actions. This calendar does not direct you to be happy about everything but happy in everything. It guides you to a state of being in all these aspects of our life - a happy state. To make your exterior journey in everyday life an interior journey of growth too there are reflections on all these aspects of our life such as work and relationships and everyday reflections on aspects of ourselves such as attitude, action and motives as well as everyday reflections on faith and beliefs and also a part where we muse about moments in our lives THE BOOK AND I Everything in my life seemed to be in limbo (read I had not met all the milestones a normal 32 year old is expected to have met. All is a correct word... everything you can think of. Then I changed my outlook and realized that my life and your life aren't that terrible - just that many times we have a picture in mind of how life should be... and we cling to that picture, that script so hard we miss out on life as it is. I realized no one in the world family, children, spouse, lover, workmates, classmates or anybody you meet daily has the power to make me or you happy. I realized no job, occupation, hobby, possession, asset, creation, preoccupation can make us happy. I realized no desire, affection, sensation can make us happy. I realized no God, Universe, Time can make us happy. ONLY YOU CAN MAKE YOU A HAPPY PERSON When we make this choice We are grateful for the moments (good and bad) we share with family, children, spouse, lover, workmates, classmates or anybody you meet daily Every people interaction now gives you something to learn (even through pain); something to enjoy, something to be grateful about. This choice makes me & you happy in all our people interactions in life. When we make this choice our job, occupation, hobby, possession, asset, creation, preoccupation and challenges become an energizer for us. We are happy regardless of outcomes and we find purpose in our engagements. When we make this choice we can be thankful for desire (fulfilled ones) and learn from unfulfilled ones, bask in affection, appreciate sensation and be happy. We can appreciate and relate to God, we can really pray and not recite prayers, we can appreciate the Universe and Time and make each moment of life count... enjoy all its flavors sad, joyful, anger, ecstasy... take pain & pleasure and live because we are happy people. ENJOY. Be a HappyYou2014 Find the HAPPY you in 355 plus days, every hour, every minute you pass through time

Peer Pedagogies on Digital Platforms

Learning with Minecraft Let's Play Videos

MIT Press How a popular entertainment genre on YouTube—Let's Play videos created by Minecraft players—offers opportunities for children to learn from their peers. Every day millions of children around the world watch video gameplay on YouTube in the form of a popular entertainment genre known as Let's Play videos. These videos, which present a player's gameplay and commentary, offer children opportunities for interaction and learning not available in traditional television viewing or solo video gameplay. In this book, Michael Dezuanni examines why Let's Play videos are so appealing to children, looking in particular at videos of Minecraft gameplay. He finds that a significant aspect of the popularity of these videos is the opportunity for knowledge and skill exchange. Focusing on Let's Play practices, the videos themselves, and fans' responses, Dezuanni argues that learning takes place through what he terms peer pedagogy—a type of nonhierarchical learning that is grounded in the personal relationships fans and players feel toward one another. Moreover, the Let's Play platform is part of a larger digital ecosystem that enables children to learn from one another in unique ways. Dezuanni explores how Let's Players enable learning opportunities, examining digital literacies, the Let's Play genre, and peer pedagogies. He then presents case studies of three successful family-friendly Let's Players of Minecraft: Stampylonghead, StacyPlays, and KarinaOMG, microcelebrities in a microindustry. Dezuanni analyzes the specific practices and characteristics of these players, paying particular attention to how they create opportunities for peer pedagogies to emerge.

Digital Playgrounds

The Hidden Politics of Children's Online Play Spaces, Virtual Worlds, and Connected Games

University of Toronto Press Digital Playgrounds explores the key developments, trends, debates, and controversies that have shaped children's commercial digital play spaces over the past two decades. It argues that children's online playgrounds, virtual worlds, and connected games are much more than mere sources of fun and diversion - they serve as the sites of complex negotiations of power between children, parents, developers, politicians, and other actors with a stake in determining what, how, and where children's play unfolds. Through an innovative, transdisciplinary framework combining science and technology studies, critical communication studies, and children's cultural studies, Digital Playgrounds focuses on the contents and contexts of actual technological artefacts as a necessary entry point for understanding the meanings and politics of children's digital play. The discussion draws on several research studies on a wide range of digital playgrounds designed and marketed to children aged six to twelve years, revealing how various problematic tendencies prevent most digital play spaces from effectively supporting children's culture, rights, and - ironically - play. Digital Playgrounds lays the groundwork for a critical reconsideration of how existing approaches might be used in the development of new regulation, as well as best practices for the industries involved in making children's digital play spaces. In so doing, it argues that children's online play spaces be reimagined as a crucial new form of public sphere in which children's rights and digital citizenship must be prioritized.
