An Inspector Calls HarperCollins UK Exam Board: AQA Level & Subject: GCSE English Language, GCSE English Literature First teaching: September 2015, First exams: June 2017 Develop your students' skills in English Literature and English Language as you study An Inspector Calls. This Student Book offers English Literature lessons to help your classes explore the set text in depth. In parallel, English Language lessons give students the opportunity to respond to fiction and non-fiction extracts that will deepen their understanding of the play's themes and contexts. This practical resource is designed for in-class study, as well as exam preparation. * Give students a supportive route through the set text, with pre-reading, close reading and whole-text review chapters to help them understand the plot, characters, themes and contexts and analyse the writer's methods.* Build writing stamina with the longer exam-style tasks at the end of each chapter.* Support all learners with clear plot summaries and a 'Who's who' guide to the main characters.* Prepare for examination success with a final chapter on the Literature exam, including exam-style questions, step-by-step guidance for writing an effective response, and sample answers at different levels.* Practise all the AQA English Language Paper 1 and 2 question formats. Students will learn how to locate information, analyse language and structure, synthesise, critically evaluate and compare as they read texts about life in Edwardian and post-war Britain, class, marriage and the suffrage movement. They will also be given the opportunity to produce their own narrative, descriptive and argumentative writing in response to the play and its concerns. The only book you'll need to ace your AQA GCSE 'An Inspector Calls' exam Written for anyone preparing for their AQA GCSE 'An Inspector Calls' exam, this book gets you right inside the head of the examiner so that every single thing you write gets a mark. You see, this exam is as much about technique as it is knowing the play, and once you know the skills the examiner will mark you on, you can focus all your attention on the things that pile on the marks rather than wasting time on vague or irrelevant details. Learn how to: - Get under the skin of each character so you know them better than you know yourself (ok that might be an exaggeration);- Focus in on language, theme, form and structure, so you tick all the right assessment objective boxes;- Plan for the sorts of questions you're likely to get in the exam;- Write in such a way as to give yourself the best possible chance of a Grade 8 or 9. Darren Coxon has been teaching GCSE and A-Level English Literature for more than twenty years. In that time he estimates he's put at least 1,000 students through various GCSE exams. He can count on the fingers of one hand the number who haven't obtained a Grade 5 or above (and that was always teaching in non-selective schools). He puts this success down to a unique method which he'll share with you inside these pages. By buying this book you'll also have access to the Examiner's Head Facebook community, for further support and guidance. So come with him on a journey inside the head of the examiner!
